

ACT, 1994.

It is hereby notified that the State President has assented to the following

-

GENERAL EXPLANATORY NOTE:

<< >> Words between pointed brackets indicate insertions in provide for the institution, role, authority and status of traditional connection therewith.

(English text signed by the State President.)

South Africa, as follows:

amended by section 8 of Act 2 of 1994

1. Section 160 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1993, is following proviso:

"Provided that a provincial constitution may

<<(a)>> provide for legislative and executive structures and procedures province; <<and>>

<<(b) where applicable, provide for the institution, role, authority and <<provision for the Zulu Monarch in the case of the province of>>

amended by section 13 of Act 2 of 1994

2. Schedule 4 to the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1993, is following Principle:

"<<1.>> The institution, status and role of traditional leadership, Constitution. Indigenous law, like common law, shall be recognised and Constitution and to legislation dealing specifically therewith.

<<2. Provisions in a provincial constitution relating to the institution, and>> <<protected in the Constitution.">>

Short title and commencement

3. This Act shall be called the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa

