(b) gross misconduct or misbehavior;

(c) incompetence or neglect of duty;

(d) violation of the Constitution; or

(e) any other ground that would justify removal from office under the terms and conditions of service.

(2) Before the secretary is removed under subsection (1), the secretary shall be given—

(a) sufficient notice of the allegations made against him or her; and

(b) an opportunity to present his or her defence against the allegations.

23. (1) The Commission may appoint such staff as may be necessary for the proper discharge of its functions under this Act, and upon such terms and conditions of service as the Commission may determine.

(2) The staff appointed under subsection (1) shall serve on such terms and conditions as the Commission, in consultation with the Salaries and Remuneration Commission, may determine.
(3) The Government may, upon request by the Commission, second to the Commission such number of public officers as may be necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Commission.

(4) A public officer seconded to the Commission shall, during the period of secondment, be deemed to be an officer of the Commission and shall be subject only to the direction and control of the Commission.

24. (1) The Common seal of the Commission shall be kept in such custody as the Commission shall direct and shall not be used except on the order of the Commission.

(2) The common seal of the Commission when affixed to a document and duly authenticated shall be judicially and officially noticed and, unless the contrary is proved, any necessary order or authorization of the Commission under this section shall be presumed to have been duly given.

25. No matter or thing done by a member of the Commission or any officer, employee or agent of the Commission shall, if the matter or thing is done in good faith while executing the functions, powers or duties of the Commission, render the member, officer, employee or agent personally liable for any action, claim or demand whatsoever.

26. In addition to the powers conferred in Article 252 of the Constitution, the Commission shall have power to -

(a) issue summons as it deems necessary for the fulfillment of its mandate;

(b) require that statements be given under oath or affirmation and to administer such oath or affirmation;

(c) adjudicate on matters relating to administrative justice;

(d) obtain, by any lawful means, any information it considers relevant, including requisition of reports, records, documents and any information from any person, including governmental authorities, and to compel the production of such information for the proper discharge of its functions;

(e) by order of the court, enter upon any establishment or premises, and to enter upon any land or premises for any purpose material to the fulfillment of the mandate of the Commission and in particular, for the purpose of obtaining information, inspecting any property or taking copies of any documents, and for safeguarding any such property or document;

(f) interview any person or group of persons;

(g) subject to adequate provision being made to meet his expenses for the purpose, call upon any person to meet with the Commission or its staff, or to attend a session or hearing of the Commission, and to compel the attendance of any person who fails to respond to a request of the Commission to appear and to answer questions relevant to the subject matter of the session or hearing.

Powers of a court.

27. In the performance of its functions under this Act, the Commission shall have the powers of a court to -

(a) issue summonses or other orders requiring the attendance of any person before the Commission and the production of any document or record relevant to any investigation by the Commission;

(b) question any person in respect of any subject matter under investigation before the Commission; and

(c) require any person to disclose any information within the person's knowledge relevant to any investigation by the Commission.

PART III — INVESTIGATIONS BY THE COMMISSION

28. (1) The Commission may, for the purpose of conducting any investigation pertaining to an inquiry, employ the services of any public officer or investigation agency of the Government at the expense of the Commission.

(2) For the purpose of investigating any matter pertaining to an inquiry, a public officer or agency whose services are employed under subsection (1) may, subject to the direction and control of the Commission-

(a) summon and enforce the attendance of any person for examination;

(b) require the discovery and production of any document; and

(c) subject to the Constitution and any written law requisition any public records or copy thereof from any public officer.

(3) The provisions of section 40 shall apply in relation to any statement made by a person before any public officer or agency whose services are employed under subsection (1) as they apply in relation to any statement made by a person in the course of giving evidence before the Commission.

(4) The public officer or agency whose services are employed under subsection (1) shall investigate any matter pertaining to the inquiry and submit a report thereon to the Commission in that behalf.

(5) The Commission shall satisfy itself on the correctness of the facts stated and the conclusion, if any, arrived at in the report submitted to it under subsection (4) and for that purpose, the Commission may make such inquiry (including the examination of any person or persons who conducts or assists in the investigation) as it deems fit.

29. (1) The Commission shall investigate any complaint, or on its own initiative, investigate any matter arising from the carrying out of an administrative action of-

(a) a public office;

(b) a state corporation within the meaning of the State Corporations Act; or

(c) any other body or agency of the State.

(2) The Commission shall endeavor to resolve any matter brought before it by conciliation, mediation or negotiation.

(3) If the matter referred to under subsection (2) cannot be resolved by conciliation, mediation or negotiation and the Commission determines that the administrative action was carried out unjustly or unreasonably, the Commission shall make such recommendations as it deems fit.

30. The Commission shall not investigate –
(a) proceedings or a decision of the Cabinet or a committee of the Cabinet;

(b) a criminal offence;

(c) a matter pending before any court or judicial tribunal;

(d) the commencement or conduct of criminal or civil proceedings before a court or other body carrying out judicial functions;

(e) the grant of Honours or Awards by the President;

(f) a matter relating to the relations between the State and any foreign State or international organization recognized as such under international law;

(g) anything in respect of which there is a right of appeal or other legal remedy unless, in the opinion of the Commission, it is not reasonable to expect that right of appeal or other legal remedy to be resorted to; or

(h) any matter for the time being under investigation by any other person or Commission established under the Constitution or any other written law.

The Commission may investigate an administrative action despite a provision in any written law to the effect that the action is final or cannot be appealed, challenged, reviewed, questioned or called in question.

A complaint to the Commission may only be made by the person aggrieved by the matter complained of or on his behalf as specified under subsection (2).
(2) A complaint may be made on behalf of an aggrieved person –

(a) if the aggrieved person is dead or otherwise not able to act for himself or herself, by a member of his or her family or other person suitable to represent the aggrieved person; or

(b) by a member of the National Assembly with the consent of the aggrieved person or other person who, under paragraph (a), is entitled to make the complaint on behalf of the aggrieved person.

33. (1) A person wishing to lodge a complaint under this Act may do so orally or in writing addressed to the secretary or such other person as may be duly authorised by the Commission for that purpose.

(2) Where a complaint under subsection (1) is made orally, the Commission shall cause the complaint to be recorded in writing.

(3) A complaint under subsection (1) shall be in such form and contain such particulars as the Commission may prescribe.

(4) Upon receipt of a complaint under subsection (1), the Commission may –

(a) call for information or a report regarding such complaint from any person within such reasonable time as may be specified by the Commission; and

(b) without prejudice to paragraph (a), initiate such inquiry as it considers necessary, having regard to the nature of the complaint.
(5) If the information or report called for under subsection 4(a) is not received within the time stipulated by the Commission, the Commission may proceed to inquire into the complaint without such information or report.

(6) If on receipt of the information or report the Commission is satisfied either that no further action is required or that the required action has been initiated by a State organ or other body responsible for the matters complained of, the Commission shall, in writing, inform the complainant accordingly and take no further action.

34. The Commission may decline to investigate a complaint if the Commission considers that –

(a) there are in existence adequate remedies under any written law or administrative practice; or

(b) the complaint is trivial, frivolous, vexatious or is not made in good faith.

35. If the Commission decides not to investigate a complaint or to discontinue the investigation of a complaint, the Commission shall inform the complainant in writing of that decision and the reasons for the decision as soon as reasonably practicable.

36. The Commission shall give any person, State organ, public office or organization against whom an adverse finding or recommendation is made, an opportunity to make representations concerning the finding or recommendation before the Commission includes the finding in its report.

37. Before commencing an investigation under this Act, the Commission shall give notice of the intended investigation to the administrative head of the State organ, public office or organization to which the investigation relates.

38. The hearings of the Commission during an inquiry shall be open to the public, except where the Commission otherwise decides.

39. (1) Subject to subsection (2), if at any stage of an inquiry the Commission—

(a) considers it necessary to inquire into the conduct of any person; or

(b) is of the opinion that the reputation of any person is likely to be prejudiced by the inquiry, it shall give that person an opportunity to appear before the Commission by himself or by an advocate to give evidence in his own defence.

(2) This section shall not apply where the credibility of a witness is being impeached.

40. No statement made by a person in the course of giving evidence before the Commission shall subject such person to any civil or criminal proceedings except for giving false evidence by such statement.

41. The Commission may, upon inquiry into a complaint under this Act take any of the following steps—

(a) where the inquiry discloses a criminal offence, refer the matter to the Director of Public Prosecutions or any other relevant authority or undertake such other action as the Commission may deem fit against the concerned person or persons;

(b) recommend to the complainant a course of other judicial redress which does not warrant an application under Article 22 of the Constitution;

(c) recommend to the complainant and to the relevant governmental agency or other body concerned in the alleged violation, other appropriate methods of settling the complaint or to obtain relief;

(d) provide a copy of the inquiry report to all interested parties; and

(e) submit summonses as it deems necessary in fulfillment of its mandate.

PART IV – REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS

42. (1) After concluding an investigation or an inquiry under this Act, the Commission shall make a report to the State organ, public office or organization to which the investigation relates.

(2) The report shall include-

(a) the findings of the investigation and any recommendations made by the Commission;

(b) the action the Commission considers should be taken and the reasons for the action; and

(c) any recommendation the Commission considers appropriate.

(3) The Commission may require the State organ, public office or organization that was the subject of the investigation to submit a report to the Commission within a specified period on the steps, if any, taken to implement the recommendations of the Commission.

(4) If there is failure or refusal to implement the recommendations of the Commission within the specified time, the Commission may prepare and submit to the National Assembly a report detailing the failure or refusal to implement its recommendations and the National Assembly shall take appropriate action.

43. The Commission shall inform the complainant on the results of the investigation in writing.

44. If, after an investigation, the Commission is of the opinion that there is evidence that a person, an officer or employee of the State organ, public office or organization which was investigated under this Act is guilty of misconduct, the Commission shall report the matter to the appropriate authority.

PART V — FINANCIAL PROVISIONS.

45. The funds of the Commission shall consist of—

(a) monies allocated by Parliament for the purposes of the Commission;

(b) such monies or assets as may accrue to the Commission in the course of the exercise of its powers or in the performance of its functions under this Act; and

(c) all monies from any other source provided, donated or lent to the Commission.

46. The financial year of the Commission shall be the period of twelve months ending on the thirtieth of June in Annual estimates.

47. (1) Before the commencement of each financial year, the Commission shall cause to be prepared estimates of the revenue and expenditure of the Commission for that year.

(2) The annual estimates shall make provision for all the estimated expenditure of the Commission for the financial year concerned and, in particular, shall provide for the —

(a) payment of the salaries, allowances and other charges in respect of the staff of the Commission;

(b) payment of pensions, gratuities and other charges and in respect of benefits which are payable out of the funds of the Commission;

(c) maintenance of the buildings and grounds of the Commission;

(d) funding of training, research and development of activities of the Commission;

(e) creation of such funds to meet future or contingent liabilities in respect of benefits, insurance or replacement of buildings or installations, equipment and in respect of such other matters as the Commission may think fit.

(3) The annual estimates shall be approved by the Commission before the commencement of the financial year to which they relate and shall be submitted to the Cabinet Secretary for tabling in the National Assembly.

(4) No expenditure shall be incurred for the purposes of the Commission except in accordance with the annual estimates approved under subsection (3).
48. (1) The Commission shall cause to be kept all proper books and records of account of the income, expenditure, assets and liabilities of the Commission.

(2) Within a period of three months after the end of each financial year, the Commission shall submit to the Auditor-General the accounts of the Commission in respect of that year together with a —

(a) statement of the income and expenditure of the Commission during that year; and

(b) statement of the assets and liabilities of the Commission on the last day of that financial year.

(3) The annual accounts of the Commission shall be prepared, audited and reported upon in accordance with the provisions of Articles 226 and 229 of the Constitution and the Public Audit Act.

49. The Commission shall open and maintain such bank accounts as shall be necessary for the performance of its functions.

PART VI — MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

50. (1) The Commission and the staff of the Commission shall maintain confidence in respect of all matters that come to their knowledge in the exercise of their duties.

(2) Subject to the provisions of Article 35 of the Constitution, the Commission and the staff of the Commission shall not be called to give evidence in respect of any matter that comes to their knowledge in the exercise of their duties.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Commission may disclose in any report made by the Commission under this Act, any matter that in the opinion of the Commission may be disclosed in order to establish grounds for the Commission’s findings and recommendations of the Commission.

51. Every person in charge of a prison, remand or mental institution where a person is held in custody, or of any institution where a person is a patient or inmate shall ensure, notwithstanding the provisions of any other written law, that any correspondence from such person to the Commission is transmitted in confidence and any written communication in that regard shall remain sealed.

52. A person who -

(a) without justification or lawful excuse, obstructs, hinders or threatens the Commission or a member of staff acting under this Act;

(b) submits false or misleading information;

(c) fails to honour summons; or

(d) misrepresents to or knowingly misleads the Commission or a member of staff of the Commission acting under this Act, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both.

53. (1) The report of the Commission under Article 254 of the Constitution shall, in respect of the financial year to which it relates, contain-

(a) the financial statements of the Commission;
(b) a description of the activities the Commission;

(c) recommendations on specific actions to be taken in furtherance of the findings of the Commission;

(d) recommendations on legal and administrative measures to address specific concerns identified by the Commission; and

(e) any other information relating to its functions that the Commission considers relevant.

(2) The Commission shall publish the report in the Gazette and in at least one newspaper with national circulation.

(3) The President, the National Assembly or the Senate may at any time require the Commission to submit a report on a particular issue.

54. (1) The Cabinet Secretary shall prepare an annual report and submit the report to Parliament in accordance with Article 153(4)(b) of the Constitution.

(2) Where any of the recommendations contained in a report submitted under subsection (1) have not been implemented, the Cabinet Secretary shall report to Parliament the reasons therefor.

55. Parliament shall, upon expiry of five years from the date of commencement of this Act, and pursuant to Article 59(4) of the Constitution, review the mandate of the Commission with a view to amalgamating the Commission with the commission responsible for human rights.

56. The Commission may make regulations for the better carrying into effect of the provisions of this Act.

PART VII - SAVINGS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

57. All complaints relating to maladministration, which immediately before the commencement of this Act were made to the Kenya National Human Rights and Equality Commission and the former Public Complaints Standing Committee at the commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to have been made to the Commission.

58. The Commission shall be bound in all contracts, including contracts of service, if any, subsisting at the commencement of this Act and to which the Public Complaints Standing Committee was party.

SECOND SCHEDULE (s. 19)

MEETINGS AND PROCEDURE OF THE COMMISSION

Meetings.

1. (1) The Commission shall decide when and where it meets and the meetings shall be convened by the chairperson.

(2) The Commission shall have at least four meetings in every financial year and not more than four months shall elapse between one meeting and the next meeting.

(3) Unless three quarters of the members otherwise agree, at least seven days’ notice in writing of a meeting shall be given to every member.

(4) A meeting shall be presided over by the chairperson or in his or her absence by the vice-chairperson.

(5) The members of the Commission shall elect a vice-chairperson from among themselves—
(a) at the first sitting of the Commission; and

(b) whenever it is necessary to fill the vacancy in the office of the vice-chairperson.

(6) The chairperson and vice-chairperson shall not be of the same gender.

(7) The Commission may invite any person to attend any of its meetings and to participate in its deliberations, but such person shall not have a vote in any decision of the Commission.

2.(1) If any person has a personal or fiduciary interest in any matter before the Commission, and is present at a meeting of the Commission or any committee at which any matter is the subject of consideration, that person shall as soon as is practicable after the commencement of the meeting, declare such interest and shall not take part in any consideration or discussion of, or vote on any question touching such matter.

(2) A disclosure of interest made under sub-paragraph (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it is made.

(3) A person who contravenes sub-paragraph (1) commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding three million shillings, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(4) No member or staff of the Commission shall transact any business or trade with the Commission directly or indirectly.

3.(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2), the quorum of the meeting shall not be less than half of the appointed members.
(2) Where there is a vacancy in the Commission, the quorum of the meeting shall not be less than three appointed members.

4. A question before the Commission shall be decided with a supporting vote of at least two thirds of the members present.

5. The Commission shall-

(a) determine rules of procedure for the conduct of its business; and

(b) keep minutes of its proceedings and decisions.
