1. Call to Order

The meeting was called to order by the Secretary of the National Constitutional Conference (NCC) at 09 00 hours, followed by the singing of the National Anthem and prayer by Reverend Foston Sakala.

2. Introduction of Secretary and Deputy Secretaries

Honourable George Kunda, SC, MP, Minister of Justice, the Convenor of the first meeting of the Conference, proceeded to introduce the Secretary and the three (3) Deputy Secretaries of the NCC as follows: Mr. Russell Mulele, Secretary, Mrs. Thandiwe Daka Oteng, Deputy Secretary, Mrs. Margaret Bwanga, Deputy Secretary and Mr. Newton Ng'uni, Deputy Secretary.

The Convenor informed the meeting that the above would be responsible for steering the Conference and attending to the welfare of the members of the Conference.

3. Convenor's Opening Remarks

The Convenor, in his opening remarks, welcomed all the members present to the first meeting of the NCC. He stated that the meeting was dedicated to the introduction of members of the Secretariat and the Conference and to allow the President of the Republic of Zambia, Mr. Levy Patrick Mwanawasa, SC, to address the Conference.

The Convenor stated that the Conference was meeting as one family of Zambians conscious of the fact it was expected to produce a better Constitution.

He, subsequently, called upon His Excellency the President of the Republic of Zambia, Dr. Levy Patrick Mwanawasa to impart to the Conference words of wisdom before it embarked on the mammoth task.

4. Address by the President of the Republic of Zambia

His Excellency the President of the Republic of Zambia, Dr. Levy Patrick Mwanawasa, SC, in his address stated that he felt honoured to be afforded an opportunity to address the men and women who were carefully chosen to represent the Zambian people to discuss and adopt a draft Republican Constitution.

He stated that this was a solemn and privileged responsibility, which must be discharged in a responsible, objective, non-partisan and patriotic manner, bearing in mind that the interests of Zambia were paramount.

He urged the Conference to produce a document, which would stand the test of time, which any Government or President would find acceptable to work with and a useful guide in the discharge of national duty and a document which would protect the rights of the people, individually and severally.

See Annex III for a copy of the speech delivered by His Excellency the President of the Republic of Zambia, Dr. Levy Patrick Mwanawasa to the Conference.

5. Brief on the Role of the National Constitutional Conference

The Convenor, thereafter, proceeded to give a brief on the role of the Conference. He stated that the Conference was established by the National Constitution Conference Act No. 19 of 2007 as a forum to examine, debate and adopt proposals for the alteration of the Constitution.

He further stated that the Act gave the Conference powers to consider and deliberate the provisions of the Mung'omba Constitution Review Commission (CRC) Report and Draft Constitution dated 29th

December, 2005. The powers given to the Conference by the Act also included the powers to add, subtract, vary, remove or confirm provisions of the Draft Constitution.

The Convenor stated that in the exercise of its powers, the Conference was required to be accountable to the people of Zambia, recognising the importance of confidence building and engendering trust and developing a national consensus for the adoption process. The Conference was expected to ensure the observance of the principles set out in the NCC Act, which state that the process should provide the members with an opportunity to actively, freely and meaningfully participate in generating and debating proposals to change the Constitution.

The Convenor urged the Conference to ensure that the final outcome of the adoption process should faithfully reflect the wishes of the people of Zambia.

See Annex IV for a copy of the brief given by the Convenor at this occasion.

6. Brief on the Election for the Positions of Chairperson, Vice-Chairpersons and Spokesperson of the National Constitutional Conference

After the above brief, the Convenor introduced officials from the Electoral Commission of Zambia (ECZ) who would be responsible for conducting elections for the positions of Chairperson, Vice-Chairpersons and Spokesperson of the National Constitutional Conference.

Thereafter, the officials from ECZ on request from the Convenor proceeded to brief the Conference on the guidelines and procedures to be followed in the election of the Chairperson, Vice-Chairpersons and Spokesperson.

See Annex V for a copy of the said guidelines and procedures.

7. Nominations for the Positions of the Chairperson of the National Constitutional Conference

Nominations for the position of Chairperson and Spokesperson of the Conference were conducted.

At the end of the nominations, Mrs. Mwangala Zaloumis emerged unopposed as Spokesperson while two other members, namely, Honourable Chifumu Banda, SC, MP and Dr. Patrick Matibini successfully filed in their nominations for the position of Chairperson.

1. National Anthem and Prayer

The meeting was called to order at 09 00 hours followed by the singing of the National Anthem and Prayer.

2. Elections for the Positions of the Vice-Chairpersons of the NCC

Elections for the positions of the Vice-Chairpersons of the Conference were conducted. Honourable Regina Musokotwane, Honourable Faustina Sinyangwe and Mr. Leonard Hikaumba were elected with 322, 347 and 373 votes, respectively. Mrs. Nelly Mutti received 132 votes while Mr. Sage Samuwika received 50 votes.

3. Chairperson's Inaugural Speech

In accepting the position of Chairperson, Hon. Banda assured the members that he and his colleagues, the Vice-Chairpersons of the Conference, would discharge their duties in a manner that would give their best in producing a Constitution that all Zambians would be proud of.

Hon. Banda urged the members to remain focussed on their function to debate and adopt the draft Constitution before submitting it to Parliament for enactment.

He further stated that the diverse backgrounds of the members of the Conference should not hinder but enrich their full and honest participation in the Conference.

See Annex X for a copy of the Chairperson's inaugural speech to the Conference.

1. Establishment of an Interim Committee on the Rules and Regulations of the National Constitutional Conference

The Chairperson then proceeded to propose to the Conference the establishment of a 15-member interim committee to formulate the rules and regulations that would guide the proceedings of the Conference and to set up the committees of the Conference. This Committee was expected to submit the draft rules and regulations at the next meeting of the Conference set for 8th to 10th January, 2007.

Dr. Patrick Matibini was proposed to be Chairperson of this Committee while Dr. Frida Kazembe was proposed to be Vice-Chairperson.

The Conference approved the establishment of the proposed Committee.
